Shri Prashant Jaiswal, learned counsel for the petitioner.

Shri Deep Kesharwani, learned PL for the State.

Heard.

Office note indicates that PF and copies have not been submitted. It is stated by learned counsel for the petitioner that PF was paid on 8.8.2001. Be that as it may, it has been pointed out that remedy of the writ petitioner lies before the Appellate Authority in terms of Section 12 of Siksha Karmi Recruitments and Conditions of Service Rules,1997. It is stated on behalf of the State that the remedy available under the aforesaid Rule must be exhausted.

Let the writ petitioner approach the Appellate Authority by filing appropriate appeal /petition for redressal of his grievance. While doing so within ten days from today, if there is any delay such delay shall stand condoned. On receipt of appeal/petition from the writ petitioner the Appellate Authority shall proceed to dispose of the same on merit without any delay and preferably not later than two months from the date of receipt of such appeal/petition.

With the above directions and observations, the petition is disposed of.

Certified copy as per rules.
